

An Outstanding Primary Care Opportunity in a Progressive Community Setting

- Join a committed team at a practice that is a leading provider of primary care services. CommuniCare Health Centers is a Federally Qualified Health Center with a network of community clinics located in Yolo County, California near the University of California, Davis campus. Since 1972, CommuniCare has continuously provided high quality care in a progressive environment that is professionally managed and offers outstanding opportunity, competitive salary and attractive benefits.
- CommuniCare serves a low income, culturally diverse population, including agricultural workers and other immigrant populations in Yolo County. We are actively engaged in a telemedicine program with the specialty departments at the University of California-Davis Medical Center, and our physicians also have teaching appointments at the University of California, Davis School of Medicine.
- CommuniCare has implemented programs in population medicine and chronic disease management utilizing electronic registries and patient tracking systems, and will be implementing eClinicalWorks EHR in the Fall of 2010 in partnership with our regional community clinic consortium. CommuniCare physicians are active participants in the local medical community, collaborating with physicians in the Sutter, Mercy, Kaiser Permanente and UC Davis Medical Center systems to provide high quality health care for our patients.

- Yolo County is a scenic and historic area located in the middle of Northern California, 15 miles west of the state's capital, Sacramento, and 75 miles east of San Francisco and the Bay Area. The Sonoma and the Napa Valley are about an hour's drive to the northwest; Lake Tahoe and the ski slopes of the Sierra Nevada are two hours to the east. The area offers outstanding school systems, a top-rated university, and many family-oriented cultural and recreational resources, including world-class performances at UCD's Mondavi Center, local wineries, water sports on the Sacramento River Delta and miles of bike trails.
